

Chugach Mountains and Worthington Glacier

One wilderness that's truly unrivaled

Imagine a place with spectacular vistas and magnificent northern landscapes of mountains, meadows and glaciers, extending as far as the eye can see. And now, discover the reality — the nation's largest National Park, Wrangell-St. Elias.

Boasting nine of North America's tallest mountains, plus miles of rivers, lakes, snowy peaks and all the wildlife to which this place is home, Wrangell-St. Elias is truly a national treasure. You'll enjoy exploring the many facets of this great expanse, including more than 150 glaciers that make their way down the slopes of three mountain ranges that converge here.

Our Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge® is an escape that is about as far from your everyday routine as you can get.

The best lodges in Alaska have our name on them

Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge®
open May to September
Mile Post 238.5 Parks Hwy
P.O. Box 110
Denali National Park, AK 99752
(907) 683-2282

Mt. McKinley Princess Wilderness Lodge®
open May to September
Mile Post 133 Parks Hwy
Denali State Park, AK 99683
(907) 733-2900

Kenai Princess Wilderness Lodge®
open May to September
17245 Frontier Circle
Cooper Landing, AK 99572
(907) 595-1425

Fairbanks Princess Riverside Lodge®
open year round
4477 Pikes Landing Road
Fairbanks, AK 99709
(907) 455-4477

Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge®
open May to September
Mile Post 102 Richardson Hwy
1 Brenwick Craig Road
Copper Center, AK 99573
Tel (907) 822-4000 Fax (907) 822-4044

CRPL11

Reservations and information
1-800-426-0500 · princesslodges.com

Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge®

PRINCESS LODGES

escape completely®

Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge®

If Alaska is "The Great Land," then Wrangell-St. Elias National Park may be the truest measure of her stature. And no other place puts you in such wonderful proximity, in such comfort, as the Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge®.

The focal point of the lodge is the Wrangell Room, a warm central gathering place with comfortable furnishings and spectacular views. Fine Princess Signature Alaskan Cuisine and service embody the relaxed Two Rivers Restaurant, while the Whistle Stop Bar & Grill serves up hearty drinks and casual fare.

Amenities at the Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge include an all-day espresso bar, public PCs with internet access, a gift shop for those all-important souvenirs, and a Tour Desk with helpful staff to answer any questions you may have about exploring the region.

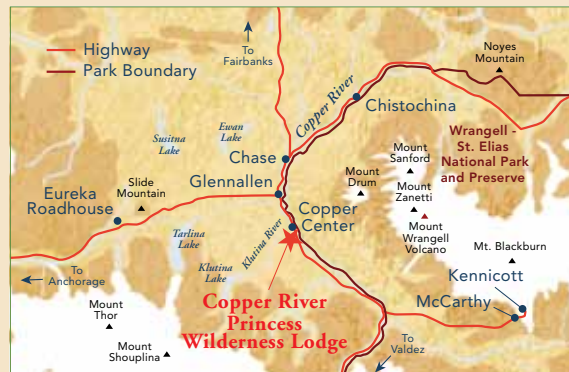

Dining with a great view

Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge

Discover comfort in the wilderness

The Copper River Princess Wilderness Lodge is perched on a bluff, overlooking the Klutina River near Copper Center. Access the lodge near milepost 102 on the Richardson Highway by turning west on Brenwick-Craig Road. The lodge is located one mile up the road, at the top of the hill. The lodge is approximately two hours north of Valdez, and four hours east of Anchorage, via the Glenn Highway.

Lodge amenities

- Two Rivers Restaurant
- Whistle Stop Bar & Grill
- Espresso bar
- Gift shop
- Tour Desk
- Walking trails
- Shuttle service to Wrangell-St. Elias Visitor Center & Ahtna Cultural Center
- Northern Lights PhotoSymphony

Optional excursions

Customize your own Wrangell-St. Elias adventure with the help of the friendly staff at our Tour Desk. Options include guided excursions in the park, a river rafting trip on the Klutina River, a flightseeing tour, a visit to the abandoned Kennecott Copper Mine, and even an outing of some of the region's famed fishing spots. No matter your preference, there is a Princess professional with extensive area expertise who can help you plan your days.

Flightseeing

A premier Alaskan retreat

Mt. Drum, Mt. Wrangell and Mt. Blackburn provide a stunning backdrop to this, one of our most picturesque lodges. The two-level dining room and Wrangell Room, with its two-story wall of windows, are designed to embrace as much of the awesome scenery as possible. Making every moment you spend here an unforgettable experience.

Wrangell Room

Advice from the Tour Desk